

Thomas Bengtsson

Founder and CEO of
Woodsafe Timber Protection

The founder and CEO of Woodsafe Timber Protection, Thomas Bengtsson, was introduced to flame retardant timber 30 years ago. With a strong will and conviction to create a value chain in the wood construction sector, Thomas has built one of Europe's most successful flame-retardant treatment centres with two empty hands and no capital. He is a true entrepreneur, who believes in the importance of being able to see at least 5-10 years into the future in order to realise your dreams.
